

Sacred Heart Sale Is Completed

By Robert E. Finneran

The Sacred Heart package appears to be wrapped up, following over a year of planning, developing and meeting legal requirements.

Crowninshield Corp., of Peabody, which will develop the Sacred Heart School building into 87 apartment units, has purchased the structure from the Brothers of the Sacred Heart for $330,000.

The remaining portion of the property, the 24 acres of playfields, Cardinal Cushing Gymnasium and the "bowling green" area in front of the Sacred Heart building, has been purchased by the town for $350,000.

This completes the package put together with the assistance of the town's Industrial Development Commission (IDC) over a year ago when it was charged with the responsibility of disposing of the school building and obtaining the land for the town for recreational and conservation use.

During the many months since Crowninshield expressed interest in development of the building for apartment use, town officials have been involved in guiding the proposal through various legal procedures to allow its conversion to the 87 units proposed by the real estate development firm.

Residents of Shawsheen, through the Friends of Shawsheen Community Association, also have been involved in the School People Settle On $10M Construction Plan

By Linda S. Corbett

After nearly a year of considering the alternatives, the school committee Tuesday night voted to ask town meeting for planning funds for a $10 million dual building project: renovation and addition at East Jr. High, and addition and renovation at the Shawsheen Road complex.

The plan finally accepted Tuesday night addresses two problems: a "decrepit" East Jr. High that is some $500,000 behind in maintenance, and well behind the times in educational facilities, and an Andover High-West Jr. High complex this is severely cramped.

If the planning funds are approved to the tune of some $195,000 by town meeting, the planning period could get underway this summer with the naming of a building committee, architect and the like.

A firm proposal would come before town meeting next spring, and construction could begin in July of 1979, with occupancy possible in the fall of 1980.

Chairman David Ahouse said Tuesday night the committee could offer half the package to the town, but felt that educationally they should recommend the whole thing.

One alternative the committee had considered was to abandon East Jr. High as a school and build a new building elsewhere, or add a core facility at the Shawsheen complex so all secondary pupils could be handled there. However, those plans were scrapped when a state official indicated that they look most favorably on preserving older buildings that are structurally sound.

"We would have a hard time," Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert said Tuesday night, "convincing the state that East was not usable."

A $5 million project is eyed to bring square footage and program areas up to today's standards for 700 pupils at East.

The Shawsheen Road plan, with a million to $4.4 million tag, would add seven general classrooms at the high school for use by junior high pupils. Those in turn would free up West space for industrial arts, career, Chapter 766 and health rooms.

The plan also calls for an auditorium addition with classrooms, and additional phys ed fields at the high school.

One of the questions facing the committee if plans begin to materialize, is how to handle the students during construction.

One architect has said they'd have to be out of East during construction, most likely for a full school year.

Signs Of Spring

With Spring only a few days away according to the calendar, some signs of the eagerly awaited season begin to appear, such as the rising water and ice breaking up on the Shawsheen river at the dam in the Ballardvale Industrial area. Spring officially enters next Monday.

Late Bus Gets Another Chance

A survey of 1200 secondary pupils by High Schooler Renee Pruneau and committee, has resulted in the one-month reinstatement of a "late bus" to cart pupils home from after-school activities.

The school committee voted the trial run Tuesday night, at a cost of about $700 and Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert said he "assumed" the bus would run for the remainder of the year.

The late bus was chopped out of the school transportation budget last year, but Committeeman Joseph Finn said Tuesday night that decision wasn't made just to save money. It was also made, he said, because the committee felt the bus wasn't widely used, and was therefore a waste of money.

The students had requested earlier this school year to have the late service resumed, and were challenged to produce proof of its need.

They drew up a survey and presented it to some 1200 junior and senior high pupils — both walkers and those who ride buses and drive themselves.

Nearly 79 percent of those responding said they would use the late bus service if it were resumed, while 21 percent answered "no." Some 53 percent said they took advantage of the late bus service last year, while nearly 65 percent said the absence of the late bus had inconvenienced their parents.

One can see evidence of this, Renee said, in the number of students who are in the library after school, waiting for their parents to pick them up.

Some 58 percent of those surveyed said the absence of late buses had hindered their taking part in after-school activities, and nearly 54 percent said it had cut down on the amount of extra help they get from their teachers.

The report said an "inequality of opportunity" exists because students who live farther away from school are not able to participate in "the educational and extra-curricular activities" afforded those who can provide alternate means of transportation.

If 40 or more students do not use the late bus, the service will be discontinued after a month. The students asked that it is well used, the service be continued and more buses added as needed.

Seifert said he could find the $2000 for the service for the rest of the year, but would be hard-pressed to ask the community for twice that amount for two buses.

Taking part in the survey with Renee were Robert McKinley and Patrick Canavan.

Bazaar Planning Underway

Each year, the Andover Chamber of Commerce Center Merchant's sponsor a two day Sidewalk Bazaar on Main Street in Andover. The merchants and the community organizations band together in setting up booths and displays for the benefit of shoppers.

Louis C. Pfeifle, chairman of this year's event, announced that June 23 and 24 are the scheduled dates and the Center Merchants are now taking reservations for booths from Andover's non-profit groups. A major innovation to Bazaar days will be the first annual conference of antique and classic cars on Saturday, June 24.

Selectmen will to be placed in meeting warrant Monday at 7:30 p.m. Treatment Plant.

Supplemental Warrant To Be Discussed

Selectmen will discuss the items to be placed in a special town meeting warrant when they meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the Water Treatment Plant.

The special session will be held within the annual town meeting and probably be scheduled for 9 p.m. on Tuesday, April 25.

To be included in the warrant will be an item seeking funds for purchase of the Turner Farm property, a 33-acre plot off South Main Street. The land has become available and conservation and other groups are interested in its retention as a possible farm, operated municipally as in Peabody and Lincoln.

There will also be some supplemental appropriations to be acted upon in the special warrant.

Also, on Monday night, selectmen will be discussing with representatives of utility companies some regulations for installations of underground wiring to Form A lots. Underground lines are required in subdivisions, but not for Form A lots at present.

Public Hearing On Articles

Thursday, March 23, has been set by the Finance Committee as the date of the public hearing on articles in the April town meeting warrant.

Purpose of the meeting is to give the public an opportunity to express opinions to the FinCom on warrant items before the committee makes its determination on recommendations.

The FinCom seeks opinion both pro and con on the warrant items.

The hearing is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. in Memorial Hall library.

Two Projects Submitted To CETA

Andover has placed two projects before the CETA Manpower program for funds. Evaluation of the projects will be done by the Special Proposal Review Subcommittee with recommendations for funding expected within the next week.

The town has submitted a project for developing a network of trails and picnic areas in the Bald Hill-Wood Hill section of Andover at a cost of $47,914, and provide employment for nine persons. Work would be performed between May 1 and

Nov. 25.

The Andover Village Improvement Society has submitted a proposal for a Shawsheen River Reclamation and Recovery project. The effort would result in cleaning, clearing and removing debris from the Shawsheen river and also build small bridges and trails along the stream. Project cost is set at $13,281 and would result in employment of seven persons for a four month period beginning May 1.

Refuse Pickup Schedule Questioned

During a discussion of the enforcement of the dog control law Monday night before the selectmen, several complaints were registered about the town's refuse pickup program.

Residents in precincts six and seven complained that often the trash bags were not picked up on the day assigned, thus creating further problems allowing dogs to get at the refuse on the second day.

Selectmen expressed concern about the matter and asked that the town be informed directly if the service was not being maintained on the assigned day.

With the exception of storms, or occasional vehicle breakdown, it is generally understood that the schedule be maintained by the contractor.

Acting Town Manager Sheldon S. Cohen also advised selectmen and residents at the meeting that the contractor handling the recycling route has been advised to provide better service and has been complying with more equipment and manpower, thus alleviating some problems in that particular area of the program.

Administrator Gets Standard Contract

The school committee Tuesday night approved a "standard contract" with newly appointed Asst. Supt. Charles Mitsakos, and turned down a clause that would give him 30 days notice of termination due to administration reorganization.

Mitsakos is scheduled to begin duties here April 1, at a salary of $29,000 a year.

Committeeman Alan Doerr suggested that the clause be added. While no one envisions administrative change, Doerr said, he wanted the town to be protected in case it should become necessary.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert objected. "I would feel badly if I were Dr. Mitsakos," he said. "He's not even here yet and we're talking about reorganization."

Committee Chairman David R. Ahouse said that providing Mitsakos gives them acceptable performance, they should give him three years in the school system. Elaione Viehmann noted that "reorganization has been an avenue for some difficult proceedings in the past," and agreed that "perhaps we owe him protection against that for three years."

Colleague Casimir Kolaski joined Ahouse and Viehmann to defeat the clause, largely because of the 30-day stipulation. While liking the option to reorganize, he didn't feel 30 days would give an individual sufficient time to find a job elsewhere.

Joseph Finn voted with Doerr in favor of the amendment. There would be plenty of time, he felt, since any discussion of reorganization would be made over a several month period.

"Says who?" asked Ahouse. "Remember the last time?"

That "time" was April 1974, when the committee then did not re-elect Edward Regan assistant superintendent.

The committee subsequently reorganized to a superintendent-associate superintendent set-up — a structure that itself was set aside by the present committee after Assoc. Supt. Harry Westcott resigned this year. They established an "assistant superintendent" position once again.

The contract itself, minus Doerr's clause was passed 4-0-1.

"The purpose of the committee," Tsongas says, "is to make me more knowledgeable about those national issues that affect businesses in the Fifth District, such as capital formation, international trade and balance of payments."

"We want a factual, rational dialogue that could lead to legislation that would help preserve and create jobs in the district."

Greenberg, who is founder and president of GCA Corporation in Bedford, sees the committee as an opportunity for business leaders to provide input on matters affecting their companies.

"Too often, the business community shies away from participation in matters that affect them. More and more of what is going on in Washington has an impact here, and it's important that we have direct contact with our representative there," Greenberg says.

The working committee will meet in the district on a regular basis to discuss a particular topic. The first meeting will be held this month with a discussion of capital formation.

The committee will exist only as long as it's mutually beneficial, Tsongas says.

Finn voted "present" with no further comment.

In other personnel action, the committee accepted the resignations of Joan Patrakis as teacher aide at West Elementary and Peter Doyle as industrial arts teacher at the high school, and appointed Lois Romito of Andover instructional aide at South and Kimberly Tremblay of Danvers instructional aide in the Art Department at West Jr. High.

Pamela Monroe of Methuen was named girls gymnastics coach at West Jr. High for the winter season, and coaching appointments for the spring season were made as follows:

Named To Advisory Committee

Milton Greenberg

Former Selectman Chairman Milton Greenberg of Andover has helped organize a Fifth District Business Advisory Committee, which will meet periodically to discuss national issues affecting local businesses.

The committee, whose members are the chief executive officers of a cross-section of Fifth Congressional District companies, will serve as a sounding board and an informational resource for Rep. Paul E. Tsongas.

The success of Tsongas' Science Advisory Committee, which advises the congressman on energy issues, sparked interest in establishing a business counterpart.

Orientation For Pre-School Parents

An orientation evening for parents of pre-schoolers three through five will be held Monday at 7:30 p.m. at West Elementary School.

According to Early Childhood Specialist Linnea Gershenberg, the session will cover kindergarten and pre-kindergarten screening and other related issues. The actual screening sessions will be held later this month and next.

Parents of youngsters who will be five by Sept. 1, and therefore eligible for kindergarten in the fall, should have contacted their neighborhood schools by now, or West Elementary School if they're interested in the Traditional Alternative.

Parents of three and four-year-olds, who would like to have their youngsters tested for physical, language or social-emotional difficulties, should contact Mrs. Gershenberg at Jackson School, and also attend the Monday's meeting.

Screening is required by law for five-year-olds, and is available on a voluntary basis to those younger. It consists of a hearing test, an interview of the child by a speech and language clinician, an interview for cognitive-verbal, gross motor and fine motor development, and amblyopia screening by members of the Andover Society.

Parents will also fill out an interview form that covers a child's developmental, socio-emotional and medical history.

Irish Fortnight Comes To Valley

Irish celebrations in the Merrimack Valley go well into spring this year through the cooperative efforts of Merrimack College, Northern Essex College, and the University of Lowell.

The popular Irish Fortnight will be sponsored and held at the three campuses as a first major area cultural and educational program.

Rev. John A. Coughlan, President, Merrimack College, Northern Essex Community College President, Dr. John R. Dimitry and University of Lowell President, Dr. John B. Duff are serving as Honorary Chairmen for the 1978 Fortnight.

The Irish Fortnight is an international program of the Minnesota-based Irish American Cultural Institute and has been held in past years by the University of Lowell and Merrimack College.

Theme for the 1978 Fortnight is "Time Past in Time Present", and features prestigious Irish actors, authors, historians and artists. Also scheduled are leading musicians, poets, and an expert in Irish archeology. The Fortnight program was founded seven years ago by Dr. Eoin McKiernan, President of the Irish American Cultural Institute. Dr. McKiernan recently received the Irish Endeavor Award for his significant contributions to Irish Tourism.

The Fortnight program is hosted in 16 cities, including Halifax, Nova Scotia, Washington D.C., Chicago, Philadelphia, Toledo, and South Orange, New Jersey. The Merrimack Valley program begins April 4 and continues for two weeks. All performances will be free and held at 8 p.m.

Derry Power, a Dublin-based actor of stage, TV, radio, and screen opens the Fortnight at the University of Lowell. Also scheduled this year is Treasa O'Driscoll, a folk singer and an expert on its literary and historical content, at Northern Essex Community College. Nicola Gordon-Bowe of Dublin's National College of Art and Design, an authority on stained glass, is featured at Merrimack College.

Lectures will be held at campus locations, including Northern Essex Community College Learning Resource Center, second floor; Merrimack College, McQuade Library, Alumni Hall; University of Lowell, Durgin Center for the Performing Arts.

Working on the Merrimack Valley educational effort for the schools are campus Coordinators: Edward Coffey, Director of Public Relations, University of Lowell; and Dr. Jack Wysong, Special Assistant to the President, Northern Essex Community College.

Union Election, School Committee Set For Monday

"Living well is the best revenge." George Herbert

THE TOWNSMAN, MARCH 16, 1978

Andover's 19 administrators — principals, assistant principals, program advisors, pupil personnel administrator and vocational counselor — will vote Monday whether or not to continue their affiliation with Teamsters Local 380.

The election was mandated by the State Labor Relations Board, upon petition of eight members of the unit. If they don't continue with the Teamsters, they cannot join another union for at least a year, though they can hire a professional negotiator to represent them on their own.

School Chairman Dave Ahouse said Tuesday night he had received several letters from townspeople objecting to Clause 6 in the committee's contract with Local 380, which requires all members of the unit to join the Teamsters or pay them an agency fee.

My feeling on that subject, he said, is that you have to take the good with the bad when you join the union, "and leave it at that."

No other committeeman opted to comment.

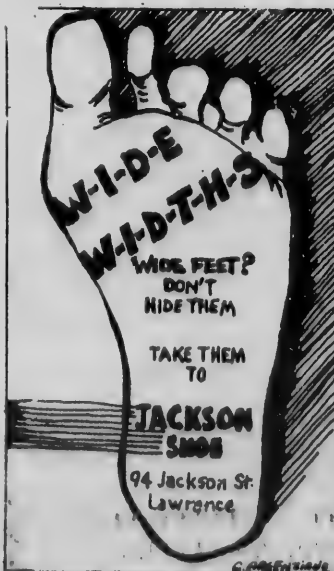

Also Monday, at 7:30 p.m. in Stowe School, is the school committee's next regularly scheduled meeting.

New Era For School Relations?

Supt. Kenneth Seifert reported Tuesday that he had met over the weekend with the town manager-to-be, Jared S. A. Clark, and that he and Clark will be meeting regularly to discuss matters of mutual concern.

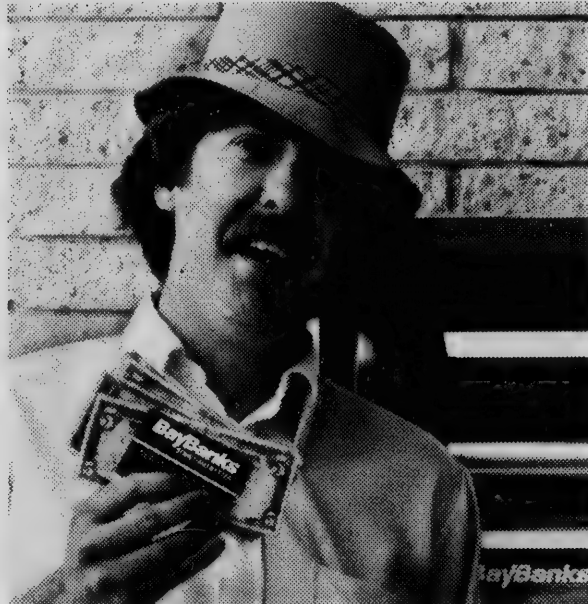

Hopefully, said Committeeman Casimir Kolaski, such meetings will lay to rest a lot of concern residents have had that the town and schools don't work together all that well.

The first Academy Award given to something other than a human being went to Mickey Mouse in 1931-32.

Sacred Heart

proceedings, the latest action being an effort to have the general area classified as historic.

Formal signing of the purchase and conveying the property from the Brothers of the Sacred Heart to Crowninshield was expected either Wednesday or today.

The Peabody development firm has been granted a conventional mortgage of $1,450,000 by the Springfield Institution for Savings for the renovation work on the building.

The Sacred Heart School was the former headquarters of the American Woolen Company as an integral part of the Shawsheen Village, a planned industrial and residential community one of the many new town experiments in the United States.

Application has been made to preserve Shawsheen Village and the Sacred Heart building as a historic district in the National Register. The structure still contains many of the magnificent detailing woodwork, marble hallways, etc. from this era, containing approximately 107,000 square feet around a courtyard and was constructed in 1923.

Crowninshield received a variance for the apartments, which made possible the sale of the open land to the town. The exterior of the building is historic and will not be changed.

On the land to be conveyed to the town, the Bowling Green, an open grassed area between Route 28 and the Shawsheen River, sits an exact replica of the house used by George Washington to spend the winter in Valley Forge.

Crowninshield has recently completed such landmark recycling residential projects such as the Tannery in Peabody, Kings Beach Towers in Lynn, and the Stephen Palmer School in Needham, a conventional apartment project for Needham residents.

Architects for the project are Anderson Notter, Finegold, Inc. of Boston, nationally acclaimed for their numerous recycled buildings such as the Tannery, the Chart House Restaurant on the Boston Waterfront, and Old City Hall in Boston.

Many Andover Agencies worked together to provide the necessary approvals. The Conservation Commission and the Planning Board worked to integrate the desires of the neighbors and townspeople with those of the developer.

Lawrence Spiegel of the Industrial Commission was particularly helpful generating Town support for the project.

Brokers in the sale were Sargent D. Nichols, vice president of Ryan, Elliott and Company, Inc. of Boston in conjunction with Charles W. Anderson Jr. of Andover.

The Shawsheen Village apartments is one of the largest conventionally financed recycled apartment projects.

Permanent and construction financing has been provided by the Springfield Institution for Savings and arranged by Samuel F. Rockwell, III, president of Colebrook Corporation and Sargent D. Nichols of Ryan, Elliott and Company, Inc.

Deadline On Grants For Artists

Less than one month remains for artists to return their fellowship applications to the Massachusetts Arts and Humanities Foundation. March 15 at 5 p.m. is the deadline for painters, printmakers, sculptors, photographers, poets, fiction writers, and playwrights applying to this year's Artists Fellowship Program.

To be eligible, artists must be residents of the Commonwealth, over 18 years of age, and not enrolled as a student in a degreegranting program. Several $3,500 fellowships are awarded annually in each category. The work is reviewed anonymously by panels of three out-of-state artists whose only criterion is the quality of the work submitted.

The Foundation is a non-profit service organization that assists individual creative artists in Massachusetts. It receives its funds from the National Endowment for the Arts, the Massachusetts Council on the Arts and Humanities, and private sources.

For more information, please contact the Foundation: 100 Boylston St., Boston 02116.

Met Opera History To Be Shown

A premiere evening of opera history will be presented on film Wednesday, April 3 by the Met in Boston. The screening will be held in the Main Ballroom, Sheraton Boston Hotel, at 8 p.m.

The narrator of these rare excerpts from feature films is Francis Robinson, tour director of the Metropolitan Opera who augments the film with personal stories of these outstanding stars of the past era. Mr. Robinson has known all the stars personally during his more than 40 years with the Met.

The sound quality of the film is exceptional. It has played to standing-room-only audiences at Lincoln Center on two separate occasions. Some of the film's highlights are Lawrence Tibbett in the "Prologue to Pagliacci"; Beniamino Gigli in scenes from "Cavalleria Rusticana" (1927); Grace Moore as "Butterfly"; Giuseppe De Luca singing "Largo al Factotum" from "Il Barbiere di Siviglia" and Kirsten Flagstad in "Die Walkure". Lily Pons, as Mignon, sings "Je suis Titania" from RKO's "Hitting a New High"; and the film is climaxed by Rosa Ponselle in her memorable role as "Carmen".

Tickets are available through the Met in Boston, 31 St. James Avenue, Boston, MA 02116. A courtesy discount is extended to all patrons, sponsors and friends of the Met in Boston. Mark ticket request Met Film.

The Language of Flowers

by Gerry Trull

The fern to cultivate this year is Lygodium Japonicum. It has strange habits, needs a lot of understanding, but is interesting to watch. In its growth period, Japonicum will race up your wall, climb the stairwell or attach itself to a trellis. It can grow two inches a day to a height of three or four feet (some grow to fifteen feet), then die back and collapse. No need to panic, though. New leaves will appear at the base of the plant after a decent dormant period. This graceful fern-vine requires high humidity, moist soil and filtered light. Then stand back and let it grow.

There are many interesting and unique plants to choose from at TRULL'S MILL HILL FLOWER CENTER, 411 River Rd., 851-6161. See our fine selection of Easter lilies for Easter giving, and many we remind you that your loved ones across the miles will surely be delighted with your thoughtful gift of Easter flowers or plants. Open: 9-5:30 Mon-Sat.

On Friday, March 10, the Band Parents Association sponsored a square dance at the Knights of Columbus hall. Last minute raffle tickets were bought as everyone hoped to get the first prize that was drawn later that evening.

Band members have been selling the tickets around town to help gain more money for their trip to Florida this April. Though, there was not an abundance of people, those who did go pitied the other members who could not make it. The evening proved to be very entertaining as these usually rhythmic people tried to do "Grand Squares" and "Right and Left Throughs," to the catchy music. Near the end of the evening the prize winners were drawn. There was great excitement as some of those present won various prizes and then came the grand prize, everyone held their breath as the name was read, only half expecting it to be theirs. Mrs. Fisk, who was present, was the lucky winner. After the drawing the square dancing commenced. It was easy to see that everyone there was enjoying himself.

Last Friday the sophomore and junior classes heard speeches from candidates running for the Student Advisory Council. This is the group that is the link between the students and the administration. They are the ones who keep the school committee informed with the student's views. Monday morning the two classes voted for the five new SAC members, one regional SAC member who's job it is to meet with other regional SAC members from area highschools and that position's alternate. The retiring Student Advisory Committee is Sue Babicki, Louise Mirisola, A. J. DeFoscoe, Beth Moynihan and Ann Moriarty. The regional SAC member is Andrea Gruhn. New SAC officials for the 78-79 school year include Pat Canavan, Camie Mirisola, Ann Moriarty, Peter Newton, Dianne Clendennial. The regional SAC person is Bill Eaton with Renee Pruneau as alternate.

Prints Exhibit At The Fogg

"Jim Dine: Recent Prints" will be on view at the Fogg Art Museum through April 2. The exhibition will include 17 etchings produced within the past two years, as well as three recently completed hand-coloured prints, on display for the first time. The selection, lent by the artist and Pace Editions, demonstrates Dine's continual exploration of graphic possibilities.

Dine, considered among the most important of contemporary American artists, has held over 60 exhibitions in galleries and museums in the U.S., Canada and Europe. Using many media, he has evolved a style uniquely his own, strongly rooted in recognizable imagery and regined craftsmanship.

The exhibition is on view at the Fogg courtesy of the Office for the Arts at Harvard and Radcliffe. It is held in conjunction with Dine's week at Harvard as an "Artist-In-Residence" for the Office's "Learning

From Performers Program."

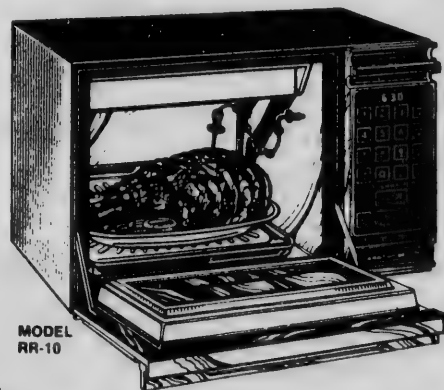

Water-saving showerheads were installed at Holy Cross College, Worcester, Mass., where 35 million gallons of water were saved during the first year resulting in heating cost savings of $30,000, Massachusetts Audubon says.

Sweeps Flower Show Awards

The Greenery, Inc., of Cambridge, owned by Donald Gammon of Andover, has swept the top three awards at the New England Spring Flower Show for the second year in a row. The Greenery received the Gold Medal, First Prize, and special State Award for a white-on-white exhibit based on a quote from John Ruskin's The Stones of Venice: "The most beautiful things in the world are also the most useless; peacocks and lilies, for instance." In the center of the 1,000-foot display is a nine-foot, onion-shaped cage housing three white peacocks. White calla lilies, white caladiums and more than a dozen varieties of variegated plants are used as well. The birds were raised by an Amish farmer in Canton, Ohio, and cared for locally by Earth Grant Farms of Andover. The Flower Show continues through Sunday at Commonwealth Pier, Boston.

The 18th Century is alive and well in North Andover.

You might have thought it was gone forever. But that warmth and hospitality you expect from a restaurant like Pewter Pot is still around. And it's warmer and more hospitable than ever.

Brick hearths. Oaken beams. Fast service with a friendly smile. And for the next week, a little something extra.

All next week, your coffee is on us. Because with every purchase over one dollar we'll give you all the coffee you can drink — free. Right up until midnight, March 24, 1978.

And you'll feel as good about our food as you will about our coffee prices. Pilgrim Chicken Pie, rich and piping hot. Franklin Burgers, topped with bacon and dripping with tangy cheese.

Great Golden Shrimp, Cape Scallops, or a heaping platter of Boston North End Spaghetti. Or maybe an Endless Omelette, crisp salad or Blueberry Dish Pie. They're all terrific.

So come on in.
The 18th Century's
fine.

East Junior High Happenings

By Lori Pinkney

Members of the math department at East Junior High have put together some new and innovative math puzzles that are available in every homeroom. Both students and faculty are welcome to try and solve these difficult brain teasers. So far about 80 students and ten faculty members have participated but no one has yet submitted a correct answer to the first set of problems that were distributed last Friday. The math department will award prizes to the winners.

Two weeks ago the election was held for the ninth grade superlatives which included categories such as most talkative, class comedian, best dressed, most musical, etc. Homeroom pictures were also taken for this year's yearbook which is being anxiously awaited by the ninth grade class.

All students in the ninth grade here at East have completed the English and math placement tests which will determine what level to take in each subject at the high school next year.

West Jr. High Activities

By Lauren Whitley

During the past few weeks West Junior High has been involved in many activities including the school "50's Dance" and the end of the winter sports season.

The "50's Dance" was held recently in the W.J.H. cafeteria and was enjoyed by all. Both 50's and contemporary songs were played by the professional disc jockey specially obtained for this dance. The outfits of the students went along with the theme and all were outstanding. During the course of the evening, the students took part in many different dances including the bunny-hop and the Locomotion. Ken Taylor and Cindy Luby also demonstrated the Jitter-Bug, while Mr. Dewire and Miss Harms did their version of the "Twist" for all! This dance was such a success that another is planned for March 17th. For that dance we will have the same disc-jockey.

As a continuation of their studies, Mr. Halsted's Spanish classes are going on a field trip to see Jose' Greco dance at the John Hancock Hall in Boston on March 14. This trip is designed to help the students enrich their knowledge of Spain.

These past weeks have marked the end of winter sports at W.J.H. The 9th grade boys have had a fair season with a record of 7 wins and 6 losses. The highest scorers were Bob Heidt and Kyle Dorsey. The boys showed a lot of teamwork and good sportsmanship. Some other outstanding team members are as follows: Ken Taylor, Todd Zimmerman, Chris Bedell and Tom Beaumier.

The Girls' basketball team also had an encouraging season resulting in 4 wins and 6 losses. In their last game against East, West won a closely-fought victory by 1 point, 29-28. The high scorers were Debbie LaSota, Lisa Fortune, Patty Conlon and Elise Balboni. Other outstanding players were Sandy Efinger, Rosie Jannetti, Heather Thompson, and Dwayne Williams.

The 8th grade boys basketball team has completed its season with a record of 4 wins and 7 losses. Although the record was not an overwhelming one, the team does have some promising players such as: Russell Lewis, Ted Kelly, and Dan & Adam Roberts.

Special thanks goes to those who contributed their efforts during the past sports season.

Cultural Series To Be Offered

The Recreation Community Schools Department will unveil it's new Andover Cultural Series this Spring.

This first series will bring three exciting and diversified groups to the community, offering something for everyone. Performances include the Yale Russian Chorus, Thee Pocket Mime Theatre and the New Black Eagle Jazz Band.

In a continuing effort by Phillips Academy to be involved in and contribute to community activities, music department faculty members will inaugurate the Series on Sunday, April 2. This premier celebration is a bonus concert for series ticket holders and will feature The Andover Trio; Carolyn Skelton; Peter Lorenzo and other faculty.

Included in this bonus event for series ticket holders is a post concert champagne reception sponsored by Hewlett Packard Company. The concert will be held at Cochran Chapel (P.A.) and the reception will be held across the street in the Underwood room.

The Yale Russian Chorus, an a cappella men's chorus who recently completed its sixth tour in the USSR, will perform at Cochran Chapel on Sunday, April 30. The chorus which is composed of undergrads, grads, faculty, staff and alumni, has been performing an extensive repertoire of folk, liturgical, classical and contemporary music since 1954. Series ticket holders will be invited to a wine and cheese reception in the Underwood Room, sponsored by the Andover Savings Bank.

On Friday evening May 12, the Pocket Mime Theatre will perform in P.A.'s George Washington Auditorium. This Boston company seen regularly on anti-smoking and anti-drinking T.V. public service ads has become one of the foremost mime groups in America. They have taken the art popularized by Marcel Marceau beyond the silent skit to include character studies, comic pieces and more complex pieces of a serious and memorable dendre, characterizing our society through their "slices of life."

The Andover Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a wine and cheese reception following the performance. This complimentary reception for season ticket holders will be in the Underwood Room.

The New Black Eagle Jazz Band, one of Andover's favorite groups, entertains in town at least once each year.

This group will offer a cabaret style performance at the Sheraton Rolling Green on Friday, June 16. While their Grammy-nominated music is in the New Orleans fashion, they have managed to develop their own distinctive sound, "relaxed yet driving, disciplined yet abounding in hot grace." A room with club style seating and a dance floor has been graciously provided by Harry Axelrod. There will be a cash bar open throughout the evening's performance.

Series tickets will be $15 for adults and $9 for students. They may be purchased at the Recreation Community Schools Department, 36 Bartlet St., or at the following Andover locations beginning Monday, March 13: Thompson's, Cole's Hardware, Look Photo, Liggett Rexall, Bay Bank Merrimack Valley, The Hockey Shop and Andover Savings Bank.

WJH Band Is Total Project

The Andover West Junior High School Band, over 100 strong, is gaining a reputation for excellence as a performing unit.

The band is a school activity for seventh, eighth and ninth graders who receive credit for their two-hour long, regularly scheduled, rehearsals per week. In addition, each student has a half-hour lesson in groups of like instruments.

It is a total music department project, Mrs. Linda Roby teaches the woodwind classes, Alfio Graceffa teaches percussion and beginners on various instruments, and Allan Minkinen teaches brass and percussion instruments.

Under the direction of Allan Minkinen the band performs for school functions, music department concerts, and civic activities like the Memorial Day Parade and Santa Claus Parade when they combine with the East Junior High Band as a marching unit.

Arrangements are being made for the Andover West Junior High Band to perform in Greater Lawrence School assemblies.

Most of the students in the band began to study their instruments in the elementary school during grades four, five and six. However, students who did not begin an instrument in the elementary school have the opportunity to begin at the junior high level. The combination of an on-going music department instrumental continuing from grades 4-12, good facilities and scheduling for rehearsals and classes, and a lot of hard work and practice on everyone's part helps to make the Andover West Junior High Band a successful performing organization.

The school band is just one of many alternatives for Andover West Junior High students.

Strangely enough, we really don't live forever.

Wouldn't it be nice if we could, though? We might eliminate a lot of anxiety and responsibility. Things like providing for the family, getting the children through college. Or maybe, how we can pay off a mortgage or buy out a business partner.

Since we don't know how many years we'll get, doesn't it make sense to protect the important things in life right now?

Bunny Giveaway In Lawrence

Spring's in the air and Lawrence Intown merchants are in the midst of the Easter season.

This year more than 60 Intown businesses are involved in the annual Easter bunny giveaway. Beginning this week, the colorful stuffed bunnies — five feet in height — will be on display at participating businesses. Registration forms are available at each business, with the drawings to be held just prior to Easter.

The rules of the registration and the date of the drawings will be determined in accordance with individual store policies.

This is the second year for the bunny giveaway, and according to Lawrence Intown Manager Michael Costello, the promotion is here to stay. "It generated considerable excitement, not only among those registering to win the bunnies, but also among the businesses that displayed the stuffed animals in very imaginative fashion."

Made To Freeze

Cooking enough for two meals at once is a time-saver for busy cooks, and proper freezer storage assures a delicious second meal. Pieces of cooked meat freeze best when combined with cooking liquid, a sauce or gravy, advises the National Live Stock and Meat Board. The sauce or gravy assures a more airtight package and protects the meat during freezer storage. The cooked meat should be packaged carefully, leaving space at the top of the container for expansion during freezing.

Foreign Film Series

"Grand Illusion" (1937) will be shown on Friday, March 17 at 7:30 p.m. This anti-war classic directed by Jean Renoir, must come near the top of any list of the world's greatest films. The total senselessness of war has never been stated so convincingly as in this tale of French aviators in a German prison camp.

Opera Club

On Thursday, March 16 at 7:30 p.m. the Andover Opera Club will meet in the Print Room of the Library. Ms Lotte Bertheim will lecture on the opera "Die Frau Ohne Schatten" by Richard Strauss and recordings will be played. This group meets regularly on the third Thursday of each month and new members are cordially invited to attend.

Book Display

During the month of March the Library has on display a large collection of books concerning "The Irish", "Treasures of Irish Art" and "Book of Irish Verse", new acquisitions of the Library, are featured in the display which covers poetry, novels, travelogues, history, art, homes and genealogy.

Children's Room News by Ruth Hooten

If you missed the last two Films on Fridays, there are still eight more to go. Until May 12, there will be a film program every Friday except for the week of the April school vacation. On March 17 we will be showing "Crowboy", "Over in the Meadow", and "Mother Goose Stories." The program on March 24 will be "Madeline", "Curious George Rides a Bike", and "Caterpillar." Since Friday, March 24 is Good Friday, the movies will be shown only at 10:30 a.m. On March 17 the movies will be shown as usual at 10:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. All preschoolers accompanied by an adult are welcome.

Our Parents' Children's Literature Discussion Group has started already but it's not too late to come to at least one. On Thursday, March 16 the topic will be "Books for Family Storytelling" and on March 23 the topic will be "Books Dealing with Problems (death, divorce, etc.). The talks are primarily aimed at helping parents choose books in the Children's Room and to be aware of the wide range of books available. The program will begin at 7 p.m. and will include a talk, discussion period, a chance to look at books, and will end about 8 p.m.

The Children's Room of Memorial Hall Library now has a collection of educational aids for the use of parents of children with special needs. These materials are supplied from a grant by the Merrimack Education Center in cooperation with the Andover School system. To use the collection, parents should first talk to the child's teacher and get a slip describing what sort of material would be useful and then bring the slip to the Children's Room. The collection is not on display, but the materials can be seen on request.

If you have heard all the stories in our cassette collection, new cassettes have arrived. In addition to Anderson's Fairy Tales, tales by Carl Sandburg, and the Homer Price stories, we also have the Jean Fritz Bicentennial Series. Ms Fritz gives a true and often very funny look into the characters who made the American Revolution. For further information on the cassettes or any of the above articles, call the Children's Room at 475-6960.

Schools Offered For Shelter Against Flooding

Andover Civil Defense met Tuesday night to consider disaster proposals, and two schools can be ready to handle townspeople should there be local flooding this spring.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert told the school committee Tuesday night they are sharing Shawsheen and West Jr. High Schools with Civil Defense.

I'm not suggesting that we should build a Noah's Ark," Siefert said, but he noted that none of the schools were set up previously.

"We did not have cots and food available during the last storm had we needed them," he said.

Meanwhile, West Jr. High was having a little flooding of its own Tuesday night, and Sanborn School's parent-teacher basketball game scheduled for West's gym was cancelled on account of a leaking roof.

Approaching Town Meeting

With town meeting approaching, a great deal of information is considered helpful in order to provide the electorate the opportunity to make well-informed decisions regarding budget items and articles.

The TOWNSMAN will from time to time provide such statistical information in an effort to prepare townspeople for the annual session beginning on April 24.

Information contained here this week is an attempt to show where school department money went for this year's budget.

Chart I shows 80 per cent going for salaries of all personnel, the remainder being expenses of running the school system.

Chart II breaks down the salary account into the various personnel categories, giving an idea of how the money is spent within the salary account.

Although this budget presentation is for 1977-'78, each year there are similar kinds of allotments. Salaries have accounted for 80 per cent of the budget for the last five years.

Redistrict Plan Approved

By Linda S. Corbett

Nearly 100 parents looked on quietly Tuesday night as the school committee made it official: some 150 to 175 youngsters now attending West Elementary School will be redistricted to Sanborn and Shawsheen Schools in September.

The crowd was unexpectedly peaceful, in contrast to the group that turned out last Thursday at an evening session at West.

One of the requests that came out of that meeting was incorporated into the final plan, however. Youngsters who will be in sixth grade next year will have the option of finishing out their elementary careers at West.

Another concern of parents was also laid to rest Tuesday night: youngsters who are presently bused to West will also ride to their new schools.

Committee Chairman David R. Ahouse, however, said that the committee could offer parents "no guarantees" about what would happen in three or four years. He said they had hoped for a longer-term solution to declining enrollments, but were constrained by population projections to four years or so.

The point could still come down the road where a school would be closed or turned over to other uses. Future redistricting remains a possibility, as well as combined-grade classrooms.

Ahouse said, however, he felt the committee was making the best decision it could at this time.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert also patted the committee on the back for sticking to its Number One goal of achieving consistency of services throughout the system in the shortest time, when it might have been easier and more economical to simply close down a school.

While some people are going to be inconvenienced, Seifert said that in the long haul, the whole town will be better off.

He said some glaring discrepancies in services — those outside-the-regular-classroom activities — will now be largely corrected. At the top of the service shopping list are art, music and media spaces in all the schools, because those activities affect the most youngsters. Then come spaces for math and language labs, learning disabilities, adaptive phys ed, speech and hearing and school adjustment counselors.

At the present time, Seifert said, in one given school you'll find a fine arts room with lots of storage, while in another, the art teacher wheels a cart into a classroom and wheels it out again when the period is over.

Some schools have a music room complete with piano, while in others, the record player the music teacher brings with her into the classroom is all the youngsters know for their six-year stay. In addition to consistency of services, Seifert said redistricting will provide a consistent teacher-pupil ratio throughout town, relieve an overcrowded condition at West, and keep Shawsheen as a school for at least a few more years. Shawsheen's enrollment had begun to drop beyond the point of making it a "viable" school.

The redistricting task was turned over to the six elementary principals, and their proposal was presented to the school committee two weeks ago.

Seifert noted Tuesday night that the plan maintained the "integrity of neighborhoods" and used "natural boundaries" where possible. He said they did not want to have one half of a street attending one school and the other half, another.

The area redistricted from West to Sanborn includes Greenwood Road, Tiffany Lane, Cottonwood Circle, Dean Circle, Exeter Way, Lancaster Place, Lowell Street up to the Animal Hospital, Knob Hill, Lansbury Lane and Candlewood Drive.

Omitted in the first proposal, but included in the move from West to Shawsheen, will be Bakers Lane, Brechin Terrace, Cuba Street, Moraine Street, Amici Way, Essex Street (59 to 84) and Red Spring Road. They join Mary Lou Lane, Marilyn Road, Lincoln Street, Theodore Avenue, Smithshire Drive, Beech Circle, Lincoln Circle, Canterbury Street, Lowell Street from Route 28 to Lincoln Street, Cindy Lane, Cyr Circle, Arthur Road, Lillian Terrace, Cassimere Street, Iceland Road and Stevens Street.

Most of the two areas involved once were included in the districts to which they'll now belong, but were moved to West when that school was built.

When it was the parents' time to talk, a father from Tiffany Lane favored the plan and called a four-year timetable "reasonable." "I think we have to move today and not worry about what will happen to Shawsheen later," he said. "West is too large now."

Mrs. Ann Goldstein of Candlewood Drive presented the committee with several "West Is Best" cards made by neighborhood youngsters, and a petition signed by youngsters who like it where they are.

She asked what the chances were that they'd be redistricted again.

While there were no guarantees, Committeeman Elaine Viehmann noted that the chances are they'll be putting more youngsters into Sanborn in coming years, not taking any away.

Carl Holt of Lincoln Street was assured that next year's sixth graders would have the option of going or staying, and Seifert told Judith MacDonald of Candlewood Drive that there would be an open house and orientation program before the end of the year for parents who would be affected.

While the session was quieter than expected, it was also smaller. The cafeteria at East Jr. High was set up and waiting for an overflow crowd that never came.

The old Stowe School provided a side attraction as well, when a resident bat from the third floor put on a flying show in the hall. While Seifert claimed it was a part of the Outdoor Education Program, a parent captured it in an empty box and Business Manager Edward Maguire toted it away.

Dog Law Enforcement Urged By Sponsors

Enforcement of the dog control law as it is now on the books, was requested of the selectmen Monday night by representatives of the Citizens for Humane Dog Control.

The group which was successful in getting the present bylaw enacted at the October town meeting, was critical of the lack of enforcement and the failure of the town to employ additional personnel and equipment to implement provisions of the bylaw.

Atty. Charles G. Rancourt, representing the citizens group said that the group did not stop with the action of town meeting, but has been attempting to make the law effective.

He said the two words which have accompanied their effort are "frustration" and "anger," as far as progress is concerned.

Rancourt said the group had met with Acting Town Manager Sheldon S. Cohen in November asking that the $17,000 appropriated at town meeting be used to hire additional personnel. Counsel said the group promised that two people would be appointed as dog control officers, but to date no appointments have been made.

He also pointed out that Cohen said he would look into possible acquisition of some surplus equipment in order to provide a pickup truck or some similar vehicle deemed necessary to carry out the work.

Rancourt said that all of the problems, such as littering due to broken trash bags, the "tragic loss of ducks" at the Sidney P. White's pond on Argilla Road, all could be handled under provisions of the dog control law, provided enforcement provisions are implemented.

Acting Manager Cohen told selectmen that the two position available for dog control officers, have been advertised. Two CETA candidates were interviewed, but were not suitable for the type of work. Continued efforts would be made to fill the positions.

Cohen added that the town meeting article did not provide funds for a second vehicle which is needed if the enforcement procedures are to be implemented.

The acting manager said that some effort has been made to step up enforcement, with the one officer now starting a half hour earlier and working on trash routes and school areas.

Cohen also said, "we have to be realistic about the increase in levels of enforcements," regarding costs and equipment. He noted that the town also faces some constraints from state and town bylaws with regard to levying fines.

William Van Washburn of Nutmeg Lane also complained to selectmen about the trash pickup problem, stating that on several occasions the contractor has failed to make the rounds on the appointed

Salamone Seeks Three Year Term

Selectman Philip J. Salamone will be a candidate for the three year term on the board at the annual town election, March 27. He was unanimously appointed to the board last June to fill the term left vacant by the resignation of Alan F. French.

His term as selectman has encompassed a period of transition resulting in the appointment of a new town manager and new reorganization of the town's inspection services.

Salamone states that he supports a strong town manager-town meeting form of government. He notes that during his term, the board has greatly increased the opportunity for citizen participation in town government and says he will continue to make every effort to encourage citizen input into town decision making.

The candidate states he is a strong advocate of a stable property tax. "In order for us to maintain a stable property tax, we must begin to deal with the problems of growth. It is only if we make a concerted effort to control growth that we will be able to control our tax rate," Salamone said, adding he is committed to such effort.

Salamone said he favors efforts to provide additional safe and affordable housing for Andover's senior citizens and making municipal buildings and streets accessible to the handicapped, with annual programs established to meet these goals.

A graduate of Brooklyn College, Salamone administered a health clinic in Brazil for two years as a Peace Corps volunteer. He joined the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development following graduate studies at New York University. His work with HUD has been involved with community problems and groups dedicated to achieving solutions such as the Massachusetts Association of Older Americans and the Mass. League of Cities and Towns.

He and his wife Anne, and two children, Beth and Matthew, reside at 9 Carisbrooke St.

With A Certain Amount Of Pride

How often has it been that we elect representatives to the state level from areas such as ours and either their talent is buried amid the Boston Pols, or their efforts are thwarted by the Beacon Hill power structure.

It is because of such happenings of the past, that we sort of burst our buttons this week in commending the work of Rep. Gerald Cohen from Andover who is heading the investigation into irregularities surrounding contracts involved in the construction of the Boston UMass campus.

It's not that Rep. Cohen has been idle since his election to the legislature in 1974 as Andover's sole representative on Beacon Hill.

He has been a tireless worker for the town and his constituents during that time.

But in recent weeks, Cohen has been thrust into the spotlight due to his being named chairman of the investigative unit looking into alleged payoffs or payouts in connection with operations by a management consulting firm.

In that capacity, he has commanded the attention of the media and, in turn the general public.

Last week, he faced former Governor Endicott

Peabody and the interrogative exchange resulted in Cohen displaying an adroitness to be admired.

Any investigatory process of this type is bound to be difficult, involving as it does, major political figures in the state, as well as contractors, consultants and any number of their legal representatives.

A member of the post audit committee of the legislature since his election in 1974, Cohen expressed particular concern about the alleged irregularities when presented to the group.

Ultimately he was named to chair the investigation for the post audit committee.

The work, no doubt, is time consuming, but we are assured that based on past performance, Cohen will equip himself properly to handle the task as it progresses.

To date, he has handled himself and the probe in exemplary fashion.

It is with a certain sense of pride that we look upon the service being given Andover and the State by Rep. Cohen, who, despite the sudden attention still responds to the greeting "Hi, Gerry!"

Going To The Dogs

Andover's age-old problem is upon us once again, namely canine control.

Already an agenda item for town meeting action, for the third time in a year, the subject of enforcement of a dog control law already on the books was before the selectmen again this week.

Citizens for Humane Dog Control, the group successful in getting the present bylaw on the books last October, met with selectmen Monday night to express, "frustration," and "anger" about enforcement, or better still, lack of same with regard to Andover's dogs.

Atty. Charles Rancourt felt that some action should have been taken by now to have additional personnel and vehicles on board to enforce the law. Such action would eliminate broken trash bags, killing of ducks, and other such canine-related problems.

Acting Town Manager Sheldon S. Cohen said that attempts have been made to add personnel to the animal control department, but there were no funds for a truck, necessary to the effectiveness of the operation.

Fact of the matter is, while there are some funds for implementing the new bylaw, whether the present or the one proposed in this year's town meeting, it will require a considerable expenditure.

We can anticipate that if such funds are requested, they will be approved, since, despite the magnitude of other items on the agenda, the canine question will command the major attention.

We can almost count on attendance declining rapidly once the leash law item is acted upon. This will leave such items as a million dollars for school planning, a few hundred thousand dollars for such items as water and sewer improvement, highway and drainage construction and other items to the few concerned citizens who might remain through the rest of the warrant.

Such is the tenor of how town meeting operates.

Not too facetiously, we might suggest that the industrial commission be assigned the task of luring an Alpo factory to Andover with provisions that Andover dogs be retained as product testers. That way an expanded tax base might compensate for the time we spend debating on how best to handle fickle fido.

Terror in the Skies: Which Satellite to Fall Next?

WASHINGTON — The full story hasn't been told of the Soviet satellite that crashed into the frozen Canadian tundra last month. Investigators still haven't found all the radioactive remains.

Luckily, the defective satellite came down in an isolated wilderness. But we can now report that our scientists were prepared for the worst. They knew the satellite was in trouble weeks before it fell to the earth. They feared it might crash in the United States. The Energy Department alerted medical experts in Washington and Las Vegas to be ready to respond to a potential emergency.

The experts forecast two possibilities that could have been ominous. First, they calculated that the satellite might have burned up in the atmosphere. The vaporizing could have left low levels of radioactive fallout in the atmosphere.

But there was a far more frightening possibility. The satellite could have survived the re-entry and left radioactive concentrations hovering over a large area of the United States.

These concentrations of fallout are called "footprints." The footprints are deadly. Everyone within 100 feet of a radioactive footprint would be exposed to a fatal dosage.

The Soviet satellite could have whirled into our skies, intact but defective, earlier than it did. It could have left a radioactive trail, or footprint, up to 1,000 miles long and 15 miles wide. Hundreds of thousands of people could have been killed in a catastrophic cosmic accident.

Fortunately, the malfunctioning machine burned out and dropped harmlessly in the Canadian wilderness. The authorities were relieved. But they sent 80 experts into the wilds to help the Canadians locate and analyze the debris.

Now the bad news. Ten additional nuclear satellites are still out there in space. Nine were launched by the Soviet Union, one by the United States.

But we're in no imminent danger. There is no indication that the other satellites are defective. The first isn't likely to hit the earth for 400 years.

Still, there are some non-nuclear satellites that will come crashing down. One is America's huge, 85-ton Skylab. It was supposed to remain in orbit for more than 100 years. But it's slipping out of orbit and should return to earth with a mighty crash next year. It's not radioactive, but it should demolish anything it hits.

Precious Oil: The only fuel more vital than coal is oil. Without the precious crude, U.S. industry would grind to a halt. The federal government, therefore, has taken action to prevent an oil shortage in case of a crisis.

The emergency plan has an impressive title — The Strategic Oil Reserves. The government has started pumping surplus oil into the underground salt domes near the Gulf of Mexico. Plans have also been made to store emergency supplies for New England across the border in Canadian mines.

The Energy Department is calling for the storage of one billion barrels of oil.

But there has been more rhetoric than results. Under-Secretary of Energy Dale Myers has made a startling confession in a letter to four congressional committees.

By the end of 1978, the letter states, the Energy Department had planned to have 250 million barrels in the strategic reserves. Yet today, less than 10 million barrels have been pumped into the salt domes. The department will be doing well to store 160 million barrels by the end of the year. It may be as low as 125 million barrels.

Even after the oil is stored, the Energy Department hasn't figured out how to distribute it in case of an emergency.

Cambodian Violence: In 1975, when we first reported on mass slaughter in Cambodia under the new communist regime, the story was disputed and denied. But we now have overwhelming evidence from the secret files of the State Department, Justice Department and Central Intelligence Agency.

It is a stark, cruel story of mass slaughter in Cambodia, under the communist dictator Pol Pot. Pot's name belongs in the hall of infamy alongside the names of Adolf Hitler and Joseph Stalin.

The communists took over Cambodia in April 1975. Pol Pot wanted to build a new communist society. He did it by literally stamping out the old. The CIA has evidence that the Khmer Rouge, as the communists are called in Cambodia, emptied the capital city of Phnom Penh.

No one was spared. The sick, elderly, women and children were driven out with the men. They were sent on a torturous death march, without food or water except what they could scrounge. Thousands died of disease or malnutrition. Others were executed for malingering.

Meanwhile, Pol Pot began the systematic slaughtering of his fellow Cambodians. The files contain the testimony of thousands of refugees. One communist executioner who participated in the killings has said it was Pol Pot's policy "to eliminate everyone in Cambodia who was not from the poor farmer-working class." His story is summarized in a six-page intelligence document of names, places, dates and details. Bullets were too precious to waste on the victims. Hundreds of thousands were simply bludgeoned to death and buried in mass graves. A garden hoe was even used to batter people to death.

The mass executions stopped in 1976. But an intelligence document dated last month states that "a renewed emphasis has been placed on completing the execution of all people who are not from the poor farmer-working class."

A few fortunate survivors have managed to escape into Thailand. But the border is laced with mines, barbed wire, machine gun nests, and gun emplacements. Anyone caught in this no-man's-land is killed on the spot. One intelligence source describes it as "more formidable than the Berlin Wall."

The Public Forum

Serious Concern

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

If "eternal vigilance" is, in fact, what it is alleged to be (and I'm a firm believer that it is), then the turn-out of candidates for the coming elections for town offices is a matter of serious concern. While I am not downgrading the qualifications of Virginia Cole, the fact that she is running unopposed for the one-year term as selectman created by the resignation of Richard Bowen takes on added significance. At all levels, the definition "government of the people, by the people and for the people" seems to be developing into "government by some of the people, for the people." This certainly is not what was intended by the framers of the Federal and state constitutions, nor is it desirable (at least as your correspondent sees it) and it most certainly demands the careful attention of all those who call themselves "citizens" of this Commonwealth, particularly of this town of Andover.

The Boston Herald American recently published on its front page an important article under the headline, "Town democracy falters — Where are all the people?" It seems particularly apropos the situation in Andover. When out of some 15,000-plus registered voters in the town, the best we can do at a town meeting is turn out 700-750, usually less, there is something fundamentally wrong with our form of government. The result can only be that the town is controlled by various pressure groups, without the generality of voters participating. I am not saying that these pressure groups do not have the best interests of the town at heart — as they perceive them — but that all voters are entitled to a say in the raising of town funds and in its expenditure, for better or for worse. In fact, their participation is to all intents and purposes mandatory if town meeting and town government is to serve

Open House At Aggie

The general committee for the 64th annual open house of the Essex Agricultural and Technical Institute have approved April 22 and 23 as the dates for this year's spring festival.

Director Raymond F. Potter will serve as chairman of the committee made up of Essex County homemakers, agriculturalists, businessmen and school personnel. At their meeting, committee members discussed the program of events which this year will include flower show the purposes for which intended. Some sacrifice of recreational or extra-educational time will have to be made, perhaps even of TV watching, who knows?

One of the many issues before the town for this year's town meeting probably will be the matter of revaluation of real property to provide that citizens be fairly taxed relative to one another. After more than ten years, it is high time that our property be looked at again. Hopefully our voters will turn out this year and support the measure, if brought up. I personally hope that it will be and will support it.

Evaluate Candidates

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

How we speak and think shows what we are and how we appear to other people for them to evaluate our knowledge daily what ever our work or ambitions may be.

This applies also to the up coming Andover town election on March 27, 1978.

Voters should seriously evaluate each candidate. The only contest in the 1978 election is the race for the office of selectman.

As one views and listens to the various candidates we have to subtract their rhetoric from their facts to show us what they know or don't know or think they know about our Town Government. How effectively they can perform the duties of the office of selectman which they seek if elected.

In this era we are now living in problems plus problems pop up daily to be solved.

This makes it essential that each citizen of the Town of Andover do his or her homework daily — as well as our town officials in order to solve the problems in the best interest of Andover for its citizens by members of the Northeastern and Northern District of the Garden Club Federation, farm animal exhibits, and demonstrations, 4-H horse show, rabbit and cavy show, outdoor camping and scouting, North Shore Old Car antique auto show, model aircraft flying, drum and bugle corps, K-9 police dog program, beauty clinic and fashion show, Essex County Beekeepers Association exhibit, camping and sportsman show, and a wide range of new and interesting educational exhibits for all the family. The school greenhouse, gardens, orchards and natural science area will be open to the public.

also give Andover a good name in our State of Massachusetts. We need people elected to serve us with stability and the courage to stand up to be counted plus knowledge where of they speak in order to keep Andover out of trouble in these troublesome times. Town Officials in so doing will win the respect of all the citizens of Andover as well as the surrounding communities.

St. Robert's Clings To Lead

By Rick Harrison

Undefeated St. Robert's B and once-beaten St. Augustine A continued their dogfight for the Senior Division championship in the Andover Church Basketball League, as both chalked up victories in recent action at the West Junior High gym.

St. Robert's boasts an 8-0 record and St. Augustine A is 7-1, while Ballardvale is the only other club over the .500 mark at 5-3. St. Augustine A, 59-35

St. Augustine B took a brief 8-6 lead over intra-church rival St. Augustine A after one quarter of their game, but the winners fought back for an 18-18 halftime deadlock.

Brian McGettrick led a 24-8 third period spurt with 16 points for the A-team, and they wrapped things up with a 17-7 edge in the fourth period to cap the 59-35 triumph.

McGettrick led four players in double figures with 21 points, Tim Hart added 12 including 6-for-6 at the free throw line, Ted Kelley hooped 10 and Dinnis Sheehan 10 points.

Dave Fluet chipped in a pair of last period baskets and Ed Powers had a late field goal for the A-quintet.

Chuck Singer was high man for St. Augustine B with 15 points, Greg Shepard 5, Mark Paradis 2, John Parker 2 and Tim Madden 2.

St. Robert's B, 29-22

St. Robert's B leapt to a 12-2 first quarter lead behind a balanced scoring attack with five players hitting for points, then held back repeated threats by St. Robert's A for its 29-22 victory.

Bob Leitch paced the St. Robert's B charge with 9 points, while Scott Noffle and Don O'Brien chipped in 6 each for the youthful division leaders.

Phil Farr and Don Lindsey capped the offense with 4 points apiece.

Mike Murphy, Scott Andrade and Tim MacLean also played strong games for the winners.

Mike Leary and Tom Palma were the big guns for the A-crew with 8 points each.

Solo baskets were tossed in by A.J. McGovern, Gregg Praetz and Ken Saliba.

Bruch Crochetiere contributed a solid effort for the A-squad.

Ballardvale, 37-24

BU strengthened its hold on third place with a 37-24 conquest of St. Robert's A, constructing a comfortable 33-11 lead after three periods before coasting home.

Jay McLeod was the only player on either side in doubles, pouring through 17 fieldgoal for St. Augustine.

Both teams registered six points in the third period, making it 14-13, and then McGettrick sealed the decision in the last quarter with a basket and two charities.

C-C managed only one point on a Mark Frost free throw in the last stanza, and the Crusaders also hurt their chances by missing four other charities in the final session.

McGettrick emerged with 6 points, baskets off excellent outlet passes.

However, St. Robert's tried to protect its lead by slowing the pace in the third quarter, and in the process lost its momentum.

St. Augustine A threw a suffocating and aggressive full-court press on the leaders, and with Ted Kelley's seven points leading the way to a 17-2 burst, they completely turned the game around and tied it 26-26 entering the fourth session.

The teams traded buckets and charities in the fourth quarter, and when regulation time expired it was still knotted 40-40.

In the first overtime, a fieldgoal by Ed Powers of St. Augustine was countered by two Phil Farr free throws to keep it deadlocked, 42-42.

Bill Troy scored his only basket of the game in the second OT, while St. Robert's teammates Bob Leitch and Don O'Brien wished clutch foul shots. Brian McGettrick retaliated with three points for St. Augustine, but it wasn't quite enough.

St. Augustine held an 18-16 edge in fieldgoals, but St. Robert's converted 14-of-22 foul shots to the losers' 9-of-27.

Phil Farr was high for the victors with 16 points, Bob Leitch hooped 11, Don O'Brien 9, Bill Troy 5 and Scott Noffle 5 points.

Ted Kelley shared game-high honors with 16 for St. Augustine, Brian McGettrick notched 8, Tim Hart 7, Dave Fluet and Ed Powers 6 apiece, and single charities were contributed by Dennis Sheehan and Rich Sambuco.

St. Robert's A, 51-36

St. Robert's A squared its seasonal record, outscoring Christ Church by slim margins in each period enroute to a 51-36 victory.

The score was 12-9, 22-17 and 37-29 at the first three period breaks.

Gregg Praetz was the top marksman for the winners with 16 points, Mike Leary pocketed 14, A.J. McGovern 6, Tom Palma and Pete Albert 4 each Jeff Deveau 3.

points including 12 in the opening half.

Kevin Hollenback added 9 points for United, Bill Crabtree canned 4, Pete Crabtree 3, Robbie Robinson a third period fieldgoal, and Dave Brown swished a brace of free throws.

Jim Cassidy also played well for BU.

St. Robert's A had eight different players in the scoring column, but Gregg Praetz was top dog with 7 points.

Bruch Crochetiere dumped in 4 points, Mike Leary 3, A.J. McGovern 3, Brad Kutcher 2, Yvan Levesque 2, Tom Palma 2 and Barry Lemieux converted a foul shot.

St. Augustine A, 18-14

St. Augustine A and Christ Church hooked up in a defensive duel.

The St. Augustine quintet took a 6-0 first period edge on baskets by Dave Fluet and Pat Beaudine, coupled with a pair of free throws by Ed Powers.

Upset-minded C-C battled back to trail just 8-7 at the half, as Mark Frost tossed through five points and Mark Rogers a basket to offset Brian McGettrick's lone while Ed Powers and Pat Deaudine notched 4 apiece, Dave Fluet 2 and Dennis Sheehan 2.

Mark Rogers and Mark Frost hooped 6 points each for Christ Church, while Eric Fredette delivered a third period basket.

John Rogers, Mark Mitchell and Mike Blair played excellent defensive games for C-C.

St. Robert's B 46-45 (2OTs)

St. Robert's B remained undefeated, and put some breathing room at the top between itself and second place St. Augustine A, as the leaders came through with a pulsating 46-45 double overtime victory over the runners-up at the Lawrence Voke gym.

Had St. Augustine A win it would have tied for first place.

St. Robert's B threatened to blow St. Augustine off the court in the first half, taking a 13-3 opening quarter lead and stretching that to 24-9 by halftime.

The winners were controlling the backboards and piling up fast-break

St. Augustine B erupted for a convincing 54-5 romp over South-Baptist, while St. Robert's trimmed St. Augustine C, 13-6, highlighting recent action in the Junior Division of the Andover Church Basketball League.

St. Augustine B, 54-5

South-Baptist simply has no one to contend with the height of Chris Bartley and Joe Hart, as undefeated St. Augustine B took an 8-3 first quarter lead and continued at a gallop from that point until the final quarter lead and continued at a gallop from that point until the final whistle.

Barry Lemieux 2 and Ken Saliba 2 points.

Eric Fredette grabbed game-high point honors with 17 for C-C, Mark Rogers stuffed 10, Mark Frost 6 and John Rogers 3.

Yvan Levesque also played well for St. Robert's, while C-C standouts included Eric Durant, Mark Mitchell, Todd Durant and Randy Jones.

Ballardvale, 33-21

Pete Crabtree tossed in 11 points and Kevin Hollenbeck added 10, as third-place Ballardvale United moved within one game of second with a 33-21 conquest of St. Augustine B.

The winners jumped ahead 6-0 in the early going and were never headed thereafter.

Kurt Jensen chipped in 6 points, Russ Bird popped through four last period free throws, and Bill Crabtree had a second period bucket for BU.

Chuck Singer was tops for St. Augustine B with 8 points, Steve Parker netted 5, Steve Paradis 4 and Mark Paradis 4 points.

Joe Hart finished as game-high marksman for St. Augustine B with 22 points, Chris Bartley poured through 18, and Steve McGettrick also cracked double figures with 10 points.

Ron Peck and Scott McAllister tossed in second half buckets to complete the winner's attack, while Todd McAllister also played well.

Dave Bartle flipped through 3 points and Jerry Nassif has a first period fieldgoal for South-Baptist. Dave Flanders also contributed a fine effort.

St. Robert's, 13-6

St. Robert's held a comfortable 7-0 lead entering the fourth period, as both teams were having trouble putting the ball through the hoop.

However, three straight baskets by Sean Hines of St. Augustine C narrowed the difference to 7-6 heading down the homestretch.

Greg Najjar countered with three consecutive fast-break buckets for St.

Robert's to provide some breathing room and prevent an upset.

Najjar was game-high with 8 points, Chris Sapuppo had a first period bucket, Jeff Smith a first quarter hoop, and Rich Bourdelaish swished a third stanza free throw for the victors.

Jeremy Kaplan and Frank Odum also contributed fine performances for St. Augustine C.

Ballardvale United maintained its unblemished record in the Andover Church Basketball League Intermediate "Blue" Division, turning back St. Augustine C 31-23 and picking up a forfeit triumph to hike its overall record to a flash 10-0.

BU, 31-23

Steve Todd poured in 20 points and Rod Hollenbeck added 11 for Ballardvale, accounting for all its offense as united slipped past St. Augustine C, 31-23.

An 11-3 burst in the second quarter gave BU an 18-7 halftime edge, and the victors then coasted through the final two periods.

The St. Augustine C attack was pretty much a two-player affair as well. Paul Burke tossed in 12 points and Tim O'Reilly added 10. A last quarter free throw by John Madden completed the offense.

Dave Baker, Scott Stephens and John McIntyre were other Standouts for BU, while Pete Zompa and Scott McNamara contributed fine floor games for St. Augustine C.

St. Robert's A, 38-4

Kevin Byrne pumped through 16 points, including 12 in the second half, while John Williams scored 12 first half markers to power St. Robert's A past Christ Church A, 38-4.

John Terrior and Geoff Dowell popped in 4 points apiece in the last half for the victors, and Mike Sleath dunked a third period basket.

Roger Fisk notched 3 points and Tim Jennings swished a fourth quarter charity for C-C.

St. Robert's B, 21-0

Jeff Vecchi flipped in 12 points to power St. Robert's B to a rare shutout triumph, a 21-0 whitewash of Christ Church B.

Joe Vecchi added 3 last period points while Matt Chinchillo, John Veilleux and Jim Veilleux contributed one basket each.

Nancy Rogers, Jeanne Blair, Steve Blair, Billy Earnshaw and Geoff Pierson turned in hard-working performances for C-C.

Christ Church A, 24-20

Intra-church rivals Christ Church A and B hooked up in a torrid duel, and when the smoke cleared the A-team had escaped with a pulsating 24-20 double overtime victory.

A bucket by Sheryl Hough and two clutch free throws from Tim Jennings in the second OT provided the eventual margin of victory.

Christ B, trailing by four points entering the fourth period, sent the game into overtime when Steve Blair's four points keyed an 8-4 run to tie it 18-18.

Alan Gable of the A-crew and Steve Blair traded hoops in the first OT, forcing a second session and setting the stage for heroics by Hough and Jennings.

Tim Jennings emerged as game high scorer, cracking double figures with 11 points. Chip Wood added 5 for the winners, Alan Gable 4, Sheryl Hough 2 and Roger Fisk a pair of third period free throws.

Steve Blair pocketed 8 points for the B team, Billy Earnshaw scored 6, Matt Leonard 4 and Jeannie Blair had a key fourth quarter fieldgoal.

St. Robert's B, 44-8

Jeff Vecchi dropped in 16 points, 13 of them in the first half, as St. Robert's B won its seventh game in 10 decisions with a 44-8 romp over Christ Church B.

Kevin Ward led six other players into the scoring column for the winners, dumping in 8 points, while John and Jim Veilleux netted 6 markers each.

Bob Dziadosz scored 4 points, and single baskets were delivered by Matt Chinchillo and Tim Miller in the fourth quarter.

Roger Fisk and Chip Wood did all the scoring for C-C with 4 points apiece.

St. Augustine C, 35-1

Tim O'Reilly canned 15 points, nine of them in the first period, and Paul Burke stuffed 10 more to guide St. Augustine C past Christ church B, 35-1.

Rich Sullivan was next in line for the victors with 4 points while Dan Beckerman, Pete Zompa and Andy Sartori added solo buckets.

A last quarter free throw by Jeanne Blair averted the shutout, while other C-C standouts were Nancy Rogers and Billy Earnshaw.

Lexington Fells Warriors On Way To Northern Title

By Jess Parks

It was the old "locker room pep talk-second half turnaround" routine; a real "win one for the Farias" game. However, Lexington Coach Farias must have done something at halftime to get his Minutemen in gear and overcome a 32-25 deficit at the half. They came back to beat the Warriors of Andover 57-49 in the semifinals of the Boys Northern Sectionals (post season tourney) last Wednesday in Revere.

Lexington went on to beat Salem in the Northern finals Saturday night, and faced St. John's of Shrewsbury last night in the Statewide contest.

If one was a Lexington fan, the whole thing seemed old hat. The Minutemen have come from behind in almost every big game — including their 69-60 victory over Cambridge Rindge and Latin (coming back from a 14-point deficit.)

The Minutemen jumped to the early lead 4-0, but Andover quickly came back and the two teams fought closely for the remainder of the period to a 16-14 score, with Andover leading. There were a few surprises for Andover fans. One was the effective semi-outside shooting of Mike

Hart, who rarely shoots from outside a six-foot radius. Also a surprise were some successful drives on the basket (not baseline) by Guard Tom Curtin and Hart.

In the second quarter, Andover broke the tension with an offensive spurt which took them to leads of seven and nine points. The Warriors could have broken it wide open, but they had some problems at the free-throw line — a familiar but irritating hinderance. So the Warriors were forced to settle for a seven-point lead at halftime, 32-25.

In the second half, things began to go wrong for Andover. They faded from the offensive boards, the ball started to bounce the wrong way, and the Andover offense began to stall under tight Lexington pressure. The result was the elimination of any Andover lead.

For Lexington, it was the Gene Mewborn show as the sophomore tossed in 10 points for the quarter (three of his baskets off offensive rebounds) and was tough under the boards. The ball must have been bought in Lexington; time and again it bounced over to the weak corner on rebounds — a weak corner that was usually dominated by the Minutemen, three players to one. It was this lack of offensive (and some defensive, too) rebounding that put the damper to Andover dreams. The Warriors did manage to get the last basket of the quarter to salvage a 43-41 lead at the end of three.

In the final period, it was the fanatic, choking Lexington defense which finally stopped Andover. The Warriors could mount only six points in the quarter as the Minutemen maintained pressure everywhere with a swarming, man-to-man defense. The real victims were the wings or forwards.

Geoff Bragdon, whose outside talent was badly needed, could rarely if ever get free to take a shot. Forced passes were a commodity, often used just to escape a five-second call (holding the ball). The Warriors could not get the ball inside either. Lexington rallied from a 46-44 deficit to a 53-46 lead in a little over a minute, capitalizing on forced turnovers and offensive rebounds. From that point on, the Minutemen went into a stall. Andover was forced to come out after the ball and as a result, Lexington came up with two garbage baskets to close the score at 57-49.

Mike Hart was incredible for Andover, just as Gene Mewborn was for Lexington. Hart topped all scorers with 23 points. Mewborn had 15, but that came at a crucial period when he was the only one scoring. Andover also had good performances from Geoff Bragdon and Eric Sullivan, as well as their three alternating guards, Tom Curtin, A.J. DeFusco and Dave Farrell.

For Lexington, Mark Nesline, despite being out of the game for a period with foul trouble, was important around the boards.

Charlie McCarthy, Jim Jackman and Steve Sharfer all had fine performances as well.

Despite the loss, which put Andover out of the tourney, the Warriors deserve credit for an outstanding season (21 victories didn't happen on luck) and recognition as the champs of the Merrimack Valley Conference (no small feat to itself). But by far the cry at Andover High which is most heard is a familiar "wait 'til next year"...

Will Honor JV Hoopsters

A fund-raising drive is underway to purchase jackets for the undefeated Andover High JV basketball team, which will be feted at a dinner next month honoring its accomplishments during the recently-completed 1977-78 season.

Coach Bill Vickers' crew swept through a perfect 18-0 campaign, rarely being seriously challenged, and in the process the young Golden Warrior hoopsters captured the Merrimack Valley Conference championship just as their varsity counterparts did.

Members of the talented squad were Manny Silva, Larry Larrabee, Dave Nardone, Rip Williams, Steve Doherty, Rob Wilkins, Bill Dufresne, Todd Orlando, Tom Glynn, Bob McKinley, Mike Donahue, Mel Berger, Bo White, Bruce Turgill and Bob Meier.

Approximately $250 is needed to purchase jackets for the team.

Anyone wishing more information may contact Howard or Maureen Larrabee at 475-4369.

Those wishing to make contributions should send them to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Larrabee, 11 Hartford Circle, Andover, Mass. 01810.

South-Baptist Leads Pack

By Rick Harrison

South-Baptist remained unbeaten, retained a three-game first place lead, and continued to win the close games in the Andover Church Basketball League Intermediate "Gold" Division last week.

The pacesetters, who have been involved in several recent barn-burners, kept their perfect record intact by nudging St. Robert's C 33-31 in overtime, nipping St. Augustine A 41-39 in overtime, and coasting past St. Augustine B, 47-24.

St. Robert's D, meanwhile, is the only other Gold Division team over the .500 mark at 6-3.

South-Baptist, 33-31

Scott Zimmerman scored four clutch points in overtime as South-Baptist came-from-behind to edge St. Robert's C, 33-31.

Zimmerman connected on 1-of-2 free throws, a driving lay-up, and a subsequent technical foul to cap the emotional contest.

Tony Romano, son of the University of Lowell basketball coach, netted the only two St. Robert's points in OT.

At the game's outset both teams experienced little difficulty scoring. S-B penetrated St. Robert's trapping defense for easy lay-ups, while St. Robert's C took numerous shots as Romano and Buddy Ward controlled the offensive boards.

St. Robewrt's C switched to a 2-1-2 zone, a tactic that worked well until the latter stages of the fourth quarter when S-B erased a five-point deficit to force overtime.

St. Robert's had held 10-8, 18-16 and 23-20 leads at the first three breaks, but Billy Vickers sparked a 9-6 last stanza burst for the regulation tie.

Scott Zimmerman finished with 12 points, while divisional scoring leader Vickers added 10, Darren Lowe 6, Pedro Gleason 3 and Jimmy Denoncourt 2 for South-Baptist.

Tony Romano took game-high honors with 14 points for St. Robert's C. Buddy Ward chipped in 9, Neil Saunders 4, Billy Saunders 2 and Gonzalo Cabral 2 points.

Tom O'Brien and Robbie Veilleux also played well for St. Robert's.

St. Robert's D, 53-18

St. Robert's D emerged from a two-game scoring famine to overwhelm West Parish, 53-18.

Jim Terrion's 16 first half points, Tom Middleton's 5-for-6 shooting, and Bobby French's playmaking led the victors' well-balanced attack.

The game was tight for one period, St. Robert's leading 10-7, but a 14-0 second quarter outburst settled the issue.

Jim Terrion led three St. Robert's D players into twin figures with a game-high 19 points, while Bobby French netted 11 and Tom Middleton 10.

Dan Poore chipped in 6 markers, Jim Griggs 5, and Tim Moynihan was credited with a fourth quarter bucket inadvertently scored by WP.

in the fourth stanza enroute to its 15-7 win.

The victors, registering their first victory of the season, were led by Glen Markey with 6 points, Joe Nerden 4, Mark Perlowski 3 and Ken Doherty with a third period bucket.

St. Augustine A, handicapped by the absence of its two high scorers (Dick Kelley and Mark Connolly), was sparked by Jim Seltzer with 4 points, Mike Surette 2 and Tom Bolduc with a solo charity.

John and Dick Nerden also played well for St. Augustine B, while Brian Mackey, Pete Scanlon, Jim Wiseman and Tim Scanlon were A-team standouts.

South-Baptist, 41-39

The "cardiac kids" of South-Baptist made it two straight overtime victories, as first OT hero Scott Zimmerman came through again with a game-winning 12-foot hook shot that banked in off the backboard.

Dick Kelley of St. Augustine A sent the game into overtime with a pair of clutch free throws five seconds from the end of regulation, but Zimmerman's bucket was the only one in the extra session.

Scott Zimmerman was the S-B scoring leader with 19 points, Bill Vickers added 16 and Darren Lowe had 6.

Dick Kelley poured through 23 points as game-high marksman, while Mark Connolly tossed in 8, Jim Seltzer had 4, Brian Mackey 2, Tom Bolduc a free throw and Mike Surette one charity.

St. Augustine B, 24-19

Led by Ken Doherty's 12 points, St. Augustine B chalked up its second straight victory with a 24-19 conquest of West Parish.

Glen Markey contributed 6 points, Joe Nerden 4 and Mark Perlowski 2 for the victors, who overcame a 13-10 halftime deficit by outscoring WP 8-2 in the third period and 6-4 in the fourth.

Jim McAllister, John Nerden and Dick Nerden also starred for the winners.

Steve Johnson pumped in 8 points for West, which was missing ace playmaker Danny Kimball.

Rick Desmarais and J.R. Lindquist chipped in 4 points each, Jim Lowe had 3 and Charlie Lowe also played well.

St. Robert's D, 43-23

St. Robert's C took an early 4-0 lead, but from that point on the St. Robert's D offense couldn't be stopped as it was torrid for the second straight week in this 43-23 romp.

Jim Terrion, hitting from downtown and on fast break baskets, scored 25 points in just three periods of action for the winners.

Tom Middleton added 12 points, Todd Sleath 4 and Bobby French had a first quarter fieldgoal.

Tony Romano, held to four first-half points, led St. Robert's C with 15. The supporting cast featured Robbie Veilleux with 4 in the first half, and opening quarter buckets were netted by Neil Saunders and Tom O'Brien.

South-Baptist, 47-24

Billy Vickers projected himself into the division scoring lead with a single-game season-high 34 points, powering South-Baptist to an easy 47-24 decision over St. Augustine B.

Vickers scored five points in the first quarter, then added 13 in the second, six in the third and 10 in the last session.

St. Augustine B led 9-7 after one quarter, but fell behind 20-17 at halftime before S-B ran away with 11-4 and 16-3 point margins the last two periods.

Darren Lowe chipped in 6 second half points for the winners, Jim Denoncourt had 4 and Pedro Gonzales 3.

Also turning in top performances were

Craig Sorrie, Tim McDonald, John Gardner and John Recesso.

Ken Doherty was tops for St. Augustine B with 8 markers, Joe Nerden canned 7 points, Glen Markey 6, Mark Perlowski 2 and Joe Wescott swished a foul shot.

Rich Nerden, John Nerden, Jim McAllister and Larry Torrisi also played well for St. Augustine B.

A YBL In Final Weeks

The Lions, Dartmouth and Lakers lead their divisions as the Andover Youth Basketball League entered its final two weeks of regular season play.

Playoffs

Playoffs are assured in the Junior Division with the Jaguars and Tigers already slotted. The Lions need two more victories to send the division into a three-team playoff. Dartmouth needs either a victory or a Boston College defeat to gain a playoff slot against first-half champion B.C. in the Intermediate Division. The Lakers hold a slim half-game lead over the Celtics in the race for the Senior Division crown. Playoff action will begin next Tuesday at the EJHS gym for any divisions involved. The Senior Division will begin its first round single elimination tournament next Saturday afternoon at EJHS.

Individual Tournaments

The league is again conducting its annual One-On-One and Foul Shooting Tournaments for all players in all age groups. The opening round for the Juniors is 6 p.m. Thursday, March 16 at Bancroft. The Intermediates open on Friday, March 17 at 6 p.m. at Bancroft. The Instructional Division opens on Wednesday, March 22 at 6 p.m. at West Elementary. The opening round for Seniors is 6 p.m. on Thursday, March 23 at Bancroft. Trophies are awarded to the champions and runnersup in all four age groups.

AYBL Invitational Tournament

The AYBL is again sponsoring its annual Invitational Tournament. Sixteen teams from communities in eastern Mass. and southern New Hampshire have been invited to participate in the tournament scheduled for March 30 through April 2. The North Andover Boosters and the Andover AYBL All-Stars were winners of the previous tournaments in the Intermediate Division for players age 12 and under. The Framingham Spartans and the Tewksbury Redmen won the previous crowns in the Senior Division for players age 12 and under. The Framingham Spartans and the Tewksbury Redmen won the previous crowns in the Senior Division for players age 15 and under.

Awards Banquet

The annual Awards Banquet will wrap up activities for the current season. The traditional spaghetti dinner and ceremonies is scheduled for Tuesday, April 11 at WJHS. Tickets may be purchased next Tuesday, March 21 at the EJHS gym. Tickets are $2 per person. No tickets may be purchased at the door on banquet night.

Last Week's Games

The Junior Division appears headed for a 3 team playoff as the surprising Lions hold a one game edge over the Jaguars and Leopards with two games remaining. Dartmouth appears headed for a championship clash with Boston College in the Intermediate Division with one game remaining. The Lakers lead the Seniors with the Celtics a half-game off the pace. The Lakers have two regular games left while the Celts have three.

Junior Division

In last week's games the Lions squeaked

by the Cougars, the Leopards topped the Tigers and the Jaguars dropped the Panthers.

Lions, 21-19

Rallying from a 6 point halftime deficit, the Lions picked up their third victory this round over the tough Cougars. The winners got good offensive efforts from Greg Hopwood and Mark Patti while Dean Knight keyed the defense. The Cougars offensive spark was provided by Fran Sullivan and John Terrion as Eric Shannon and Paul Valcourt had fine floor games.

Lions: Hopwood 10, Patti 9 and Mike Morris 2. 6-15-21.

Cougars: Sullivan 8, Terrion 7 and Joey Flossman 4. 12-7-19.

Leopards, 24-19

Divisional scoring leader Mark Doherty went on a rampage, scoring all of his team's markers, as the Tigers defense shut out all the other Leopards. Doherty scored a dozen points in each half from all over the floor as teammates Paul Kelly and Jerry Buss keyed the defense. Tim Perry and Larry Aiello led the Tigers.

Tigers: Perry 9, Aiello 6, Kevin Bardsley 2 and Joe Hart 2. 6-13-19.

Jaguars, 42-22

The Jaguars opened red hot, taking a 14 point bulge into the second period, and then coasted while the Panthers spent 3 periods trying to find the hoop. Brian Mackey and Chris Comparato were the Jaguars leaders as were Tom Lutz and Mike Melia for the Panthers.

Jaguars: Mackey 17, Comparato 16, Jim Lombardo 4, Dan Sheehan 3 and Fran Lanio 2. 18-24-42.

Panthers: Lutz 13 and Melia 9. 5-17-22.

Intermediate Division

In the division's next-to-last set of games Northeastern edged B.U., B.C. topped Harvard and Dartmouth downed Holy Cross.

Northeastern, 28-25

Improving Northeastern picked up its third straight win in dropping Boston University to its 11th straight loss. The winning margin was actually established in the first period as the huskies raced to a 11-2 lead. B.U. played catch-up ball very well, but the margin was too much to overcome.

Northeastern: Bob French 14, Tom Middleton 13 and Ricky Desmarais 1. 14-14-28.

B.U.: Tom Powers, Jon Bram 7, Jeff Canovitch 3, Glen McAnally 2 and Greg McAnern 2. 11-14-25.

Boston College, 38-24

The Eagles remained one game off Dartmouth's pace in topping the Crimson. After a close first period, B.C. raced to a 9 point halftime margin that Harvard could not close.

B.C.: Jon Baer 18, Dick Kelley 8, Todd Lockwood 6 and Jim Lowe 6. 24-14-38.

Harvard: Matt Wells 14, Scott Zimmerman 7, Charlie Ziegenbein 2 and Brian Bedell 1. 15-9-24.

Dartmouth, 31-14

Dartmouth established the league's longest winning streak at eleven in holding high-scoring Holy Cross to less than 20 points for the first time this season. Both teams started slowly but Dartmouth opened up in the second period and was never threatened in the second half.

Dartmouth: Tom Kannam 15, Steve Johnson 8, Terry Flynn 4, Gerry Ahern 2 and Mark Nardone 2. 15-16-31.

Holy Cross: Jim Terrion 4, Billy Vickers 3, Mike Coelho 2, John Lahood 2, Brian Sheehy 2 and Rob Slayton 1. 3-11-14.

Joseph B. Doherty of Andover is serving on the NAR Education and Planning, Executive Committee, Institute Committee, Legal Action Committee and Operational Survey and Future Planning Committee. "Through committee work" Grant said, "members help the Association protect the historic right of all Americans to own land and a home where they want. Bantams' Record Is Deceptive

By Rick Harrison

The Andover Bantam A traveling hockey team, practically duplicating its performance in Canada the week before, played tough defensive hockey but couldn't score itself last weekend during a rugged three-game series against the visiting Oshawa, Ontario Canadian Corps Bantams.

Coach Dick Neal's crew played the same team in Canada during a week-long trip there in late February, tying Oshawa once and dropping a close 4-2 decision.

Recently in games at Merrimack College and Phillips Academy, Oshawa skated to three taut victories by scores of 3-2, 2-0 and 3-1.

"Again we had three excellent games with them," observed Neal. "Our kids gave it all they had throughout the series."

The results left Andover with a deceptive 6-16-4 overall record, as the majority of those defeats have come by close margins in low-scoring games.

Oshawa, 3-2

The Canadian kids, billeted in the homes of Andover players during their three-day stay, grabbed a 1-0 lead at 5:08 of the series opener at Merrimack.

Mike Lack was the Oshawa marksman, slipping the disc past Andover netminder Dave Leitch with assists to Mike Mati and Tom Starnes.

Ed Sullivan tied it 1-1 with an unassisted goal for the locals at 9:35 of the first period, his fourth red-lighter of the season.

Andover grabbed a 2-1 advantage at 6:00 of the middle session, Dave Deloury pumping home his ninth goal on the powerplay with set-ups to Pete Dunn and John Fuchs.

The Canadian kids notched a pair of third period scores 90 seconds apart to pull out the triumph.

Stew Tymchuck converted a Derrick Sharkey feed at 4:25 to tie the contest, and Tymchuck also followed with the winning tally at 5:55 with Starnes and Randy Martin collecting assists.

The game was punctuated by only three minor penalties, two against Oshawa, as the rivals played up-and-down hockey most of the way.

Oshawa, 2-0

The Canadians registered both of their goals in the second period, three minutes apart, and made them stand up in a 2-0 game at Merrimack last Saturday.

Mike Lack, as he had in the first contest, opened the Oshawa scoring at 8:08 of the middle frame with assists to Jeff Melnick and Jay Larocque.

Gord Bell added the insurance marker at 11:29 with the set-up credited to Mike Mati.

Kris Williams played a strong game in the Andover cage.

There were nine minor penalties whistled in this tilt, five or them against Oshawa including one to goalie Mike Pateman.

Pateman didn't make any mistakes in net, however, posting the shutout for the visitors.

Oshawa, 3-1

Tom Neal's unassisted goal at 8:25 of the first period gave Oshawa a 1-0 lead in the series' finale at Phillips Academy last Sunday.

J.J. Pellegrino knotted the count at 0:44 of the second frame, scoring his 10th goal on the powerplay with defenseman Rick Apgar assisting.

The Canadians jumped back ahead 2-1 a mere 53 seconds later, however, when Mike Lack deposited an unassisted goal.

Neal's second lamplighter of the game wrapped up the offense at 11:12 of the middle period, assist to Bob Keenan.

The remainder of the game was scoreless, and the Canadian club killed off four Andover powerplays to preserve its 3-1 win.

Again there were nine penalties called with seven of them going against Oshawa.

Dave Leitch worked the first half of the game in the Andover cage and surrendered two goals, while Kris Williams toiled the final half and allowed one.

Tim Scribner played a strong game in the Oshawa net.

Lawrence, 5-1

Lawrence continued to be a thorn in Andover's side, greeting the locals upon their return from Canada with a 5-1 decision at the Phillips Academy Rink.

The visitors tacked on a shorthanded goal in the third period to complete the scoring.

Dave Leitch worked the first and third periods in net for Andover, while Kris Williams was in goal for the middle session.

The game was punctuated with 19 minor penalties, 10 of them against Lawrence and four of them matching infractions.

Andover, 4-3

Pete Dunn snapped a 3-3 tie late in the third period, boosting Andover to a 4-3 triumph over the Brunswick, Maine Bantams last Sunday afternoon at the Bowdoin College rink.

Brunswick grabbed a quick 1-0 lead at 1:18 of the first period, but Dave Deloury tied it at 5:49 when he circled the net and jammed the disc home from close range. John Fuchs notched the lone assist.

Defenseman Rick Apgar put Andover ahead 2-1 at 0:42 of the second stanza, flipping the puck in from five feet out during a powerplay. Tom Hetley and Fuchs were credited with set-ups on Apgar's fifth seasonal goal.

Brunswick pulled even 2-2 at the 5:24 mark, but Deloury took a perfect lead pass from Hyslip and fired his 11th goal past the Maine netminder for a 3-2 Andover advantage.

Brunswick knotted the count a final time at 1:02 of the third period, and after several powerplay opportunities both ways it was Dunn assuming the hero's role.

Netting just his second goal of the campaign, Pete snapped home a 15-footer from the slot to win the game. Apgar and Hetley were credited with the assists.

Leitch toiled the first half of the game and Williams the final half in goal.

Hawks, 36-32

Trailing by 8 after a quarter, the Hawks nipped away to lead by one going into the final period against the Nets. Both teams offenses finally opening up in the final period as the Hawks outscored the Nets 14-11 for the final margin.

Hawks: Mark Hadded 14, Dave Sherman 7, Tim Hart 6, Bob Curtin 2, Glen Johnson 2, Jeff Lindquist 2, Joe Zemis 2 and Paul Marad 1. 13-23-36.

Nets: Tom Stedman 17, Mike MacDonald 9 and Chuck Garabedian 6. 17-15-32.

Knicks, 53-19

The Bullets got off on the wrong foot, falling behind 15-3 at the end of the first quarter enroute to their fifth straight loss. The Bullets were able to outscore the Knicks in only the third period, but the margin of five wasn't enough to offset the high-powered Knicks offense.

Knicks: Tom Haskard 20, Gary Sander-son 12, Dave Fluett 7, Bob Foley 6, Rob Kochakian 6 and Kevin Donnelly 2. 25-28-53.

Bullets: Joe Buzzett 6, Peter Caplan 5, Jay Robbins 5 and Chris Valcourt 3. 5-14-19.

Methyl alcohol is made from wood and coal; ethyl alcohol is distilled from farm crops and wastes. Ethyl alcohol produces one-third more energy per gallon than methyl alcohol, Massachusetts Audubon reports. The use of ethyl alcohol would help farmers become energy self-sufficient and would provide a stable source of income from crops.

Hose Helpful

Keeping a garden hose handy for your car this winter may sound like a silly idea, especially if you go to a carwash in the bad winter months. But if you use it a few times on nice days during the winter for underneath areas, it could pay big dividends when Spring arrives claims AAA.

Spraying under the fenders and other areas which even carwashes don't reach will remove road salt, dirt and other build-ups which help breed rust. Adjust the nozzle to a high-force spray. An old brush will help break up residue, permitting it to be washed away more easily.

It's a somewhat messy job, but it will be worth it in the long run because a car's rust often starts in those hidden areas.

Danish farmers have been burning two million tons of waste stubble and straw after each grain harvest. Now, straw is recycled for livestock feed by chopping

LET A "PRO" SELL IT

Selling your home yourself is no easy undertaking. Basically, it means attracting the right prospects — people who are ready, willing, and financially able to buy. Not those who are curious to see what your furniture looks like from the inside.

You can attempt to make this sale yourself, or you can have someone else handle the difficult negotiations. Frankly, the best way to market your home — probably your most valuable asset — is the professional way. Just as you would go to a doctor or a lawyer for medical or legal aid, you will want to go to a Realtor for assistance in selling your home.

His technical skill, business experience, list of bona fide prospects, contacts with financial institutions, and professional reputation are all at your disposal to expedite the sale of your home at the best possible price. This is the reason why — nationally — 75 percent of all homes are sold through professionals.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Punchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

Officials Examining Revaluation Order

Voters may again be faced with the issue of revaluation at the annual town meeting, following action by the state to seek permission of the courts to order such action and charge the town, for the service.

Andover was one of 23 communities in the state cited for non-compliance with a court order to implement a 100 per cent full and fair cash value assessment on all property in the town.

The state department of corporations and taxation is seeking the court's permission to contract with real estate appraisal firms to implement the 100 per cent revaluation procedures and pass the costs onto the community.

Voters at the annual town meeting last Spring and again in October rejected funds for a revaluation of the town.

Acting Town Manager Sheldon S. Cohen said this week that selectmen, assessors and his department would be discussing the matter over the next few weeks to develop a strategy in response to the state's action.

An article has been placed in the annual town meeting warrant again and will be on the April agenda. There have been thoughts of withdrawing the item, based on its past experience, but the action by the state sheds a different light on the matter now.

Cohen said he will be discussing the matter with comparable communities faced with the same problem to get an idea of how they will approach the issue. He anticipates it will be two to three weeks before any decision is made by the town as to what action will be taken.

Special Animal Program Set By Rec Department

The Recreation Community Schools Department is planning a special family program to introduce individuals to native and exotic animals, as well as explain how and where each animal lives.

The program entitled "it's an Animal's World" will be held at the West Elementary School Auditorium at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, April 15.

Children and parents are invited to participate. They will be allowed to touch some of the animals and ask questions about how each animal survives in its own habitat. Some of the animals that will be on hand are; a boa constrictor, an alligator, an owl and a giant spider.

Registrations for this program will be accepted at the Recreation Community Schools office, 36 Bartlet St. beginning on Monday, March 6. There will be a nominal advance registration fee, which will be slightly higher at the door. Individuals requesting further information concerning this program should get in touch with the Recreation Community Schools Department.

Completes Army Course

Specialist Four Wayne E. Hopper, son of Mrs. Alta P. Butler, 88 Ballardvale Road, recently completed a primary noncommissioned officer course here.

The course offers increased career educational opportunities while preparing the student for leadership duty.

Spec. Hopper entered the Army in August 1975.

He is a 1975 graduate of Andover High School.

Dogs

day, thus allowing bags to remain out overnight and dogs get at them on the second day. He felt it unfair to dog owners to be "blamed for disaster areas on the second day," since they had restrained their dogs on the day the contractor was to pick up the refuse.

Washburn added that the basic problem seemed to be "not enough dog officers and a lousy trash pickup system."

Selectmen will look into the matter further on the matter of both enforcement of the present law, as well as the trash pickup service, with Selectmen Albert Cole and Philip Salamone both noting that if the dog officer is not picking up dogs, "then any bylaw would be ineffective."

While there was a suggestion that possibly a dog officer could walk the trash routes, Selectman Edward M. Harris said he felt this was an impossibility and that for all practical purposes a second vehicle was necessary.

Selectman Salamone said he felt the problem resolved itself to "we have a law — what can reasonably be applied to getting it enforced," a matter the board and acting manager will be looking into.

On Dean's List

Joanne Burke and Jeffrey P. Holihan have been named to the Dean's List at New Hampshire College in Manchester, N. H. for the fall semester. To be eligible for this honor, a student must compile an academic grade point average of 3.0 - 3.5.

Joanne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Burke of 64 Haverhill St. in Andover. She is majoring in the college's four year Management program.

Jeffrey is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Holihan of 68 Salem Street in Andover. He is majoring in the college's four year Hotel-Resort-Tourism Administration program.
